Reasons for Status Determination:

Should a contractor or fee payer disagree with the Status, being inside or outside IR35, then the contractor and/or fee payer has the right to appeal the decision. The client then has 45 days to respond to the appeal. This could include redetermining the Status or re-complete the Status Determination Statement to include more detailed reasons explaining the Status.

Failing to meet this obligation may result in the client being fully responsible and liable for payment of employment taxes and wages.
